Hilltop Camper, Staff & Alum News

We know Hilltop campers accomplish amazing things everyday. We want to celebrate you! So please share yours with us. Also, please keep an eye on our Facebook page to see the great things that your Hilltop family is doing out in the world. You make us proud!

Hilltop Staff News

Gabbie ('14-'18) is back in Qatar teaching 1st grade (see pic). She did get a chance to visit New Zealand and meet up with Nic ('14). It is great to see old Hilltop faces (see pic)! She also did some bungee jumping while she was there with Ants ('15-'16).

Yasmin ('15, '17-'18) loved traveling through Canada after camp and has now landed in New Zealand where she will be exploring and living for the next months (see pic).

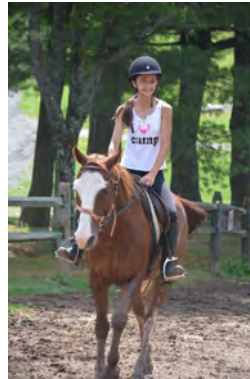

Brina ('18) is back at University of South Carolina and excited to be part of a dance marathon fundraising effort trying to raise over a million dollars for Palmetto Health Children's Hospital. We can't wait to see the results of her hard work in March!

Both Grace ('17-'18) and Dom F ('18) have made it back to England and are enjoying time with their new nieces! Family love! Also, the U14 soccer team Dom F coaches is top of their league so he is one happy coach!

Kirsti ('12-'14, '18) is at university to become a midwife! Hilltop is so proud of how hard she has worked to accomplish her goal!

Hendrik ('17-'18) is currently living in Iqualda Spain working as a conversation assistant (see pic).

Lucie ('17-'18) is trying out life in England for a bit. She is currently working as a nanny.
